

Date

2003 - 2005

Client

Private Client

Status

Completed

Awards

2005 RIAI - Irish Architecture Award

2005 IDI Commendation

2005 OPUS Award

2005 AAI Award

Description

This small project underlines the detailed aspect of the work undertaken by NJBA A+U in determining the appropriate responsive form for the surrounding conditions. Preserving the surrounding context is as important as providing sufficient light deep into the plan of the existing house. The whole construction is built in such a way to allow for its removal, is built from sustainable timber and recyclable materials of cedar, copper and oak.

